The Southern Alberta farmer ought not to worry when other favored spots are hit just as hard as we are. The world is topsy turvy this year, but all will come right. It is foolish to be impatient and lose faith simply because there is one bad year in ten. The country has not yet appeared on the hemisphere that can boast of good crops all the time. The most favored lands have off years.
What we want in this country are men of the calibre of the Kansas farmer of the early days in that state. There had been a drought and all the crops had been burnt up. A farmer passed a neighbor driving a prairie schooner and he remarked to him: "Where going Sir?" "Down to the Missouri to get fed up and then I'm coming back to make her sick." The "make her sick" kind of settler saved Kansas, and to-day it is one of the wealthiest states in the Union.—Herald.

Anxiety Over Absence of High River Man

The disappearance of Charles Thrun from High River has been causing anxiety among men to whom he owes considerable money, and especially among some of his employees. Thrun has been running threshing and plowing outfits since he came to High River district five years ago. The Mounted Police have been informed of his suspicious departure for parts unknown, and it is understood steps will be taken to arrest Thrun shortly.

It is reported that he owes two thousand dollars in wages to a number of his employees. Besides this it is said he has borrowed large sums of money from a bank in High River. He employed fifteen men and these are now without employment and without their wages.

One report says that since his departure Thrun has written saying every man will get what is due him. Then again it is said he wrote only to his wife, who still lives in the vicinity of High River.
His present address is a secret, but it is suspected he went to North Dakota. He came from that state five years ago.

The R.N.W.M.P. in this city were informed of the matter, but it comes within the jurisdiction of the High River branch, and steps will be taken shortly to bring the man back.—Calgary Albertan.

At a recent English election two laboring men were discussing politics (and four-ale) in the public bar-room of the Red Lion. Jones was a true-blue Tory, while Smith was a Radical of the deepest dye.
The argument was fierce. "Ah, well," remarked Jones at length, "ye can't get away from the fact that Mr. Robinson's a puffed confeimán. A real toff 'e is. Only the other day 'e sent me a rabbit for my dinner." "Oh, 'e did, did 'e?" snapped Smith. "Well, that's wot we calls bribery," Jones began to get alarmed. "Well, the rabbit was a trifle 'igh," he replied deprecatingly. "Wuss still," thundered Smith; "wuss still, That's bilbery and corruption."

Held for Trial

The preliminary hearing of Henry Adams, accused of placing strychnine in the drinking water and in oats at one of the Dymont camps, was held here Monday, and concluded Tuesday morning.
Several witnesses for the prosecution were examined Monday, and Monday evening the case was adjournd until Tuesday morning.
Adams was placed, under $1000 bonds to appear for trial before the supreme court. The bonds were furnished by himself and his brother, John Adams, and Wm Murphy and Chris Zalind, and he was released from custody.

Adams had been employed on the Dymont farm, and had a fight with Robt. C. Hunter, the foreman, and was discharged. The next day the drinking water at this camp was found to taste bitter and the food cooked with it was bitter.
Hunter suspected strychnine, and preserved samples of the water, before throwing it out. That night a valuable mare died at the camp and in her feed box were found particles resembling strychnine, which were preserved, and the mare's stomach was sent to the government analyst at Edmonton, as were also the samples of water. Tracks said to correspond to those made by Adams were found leading across the plowed ground from the stable. This is a brief outline of the case. Subsequent to the poisoning Adams was arrested on a charge of assault, in connection with his fight with Hunter, and has not completed thirty days in the barracks at Macleod.—Nanton News.

Kipp to Aldersyde Road

Since the appearance of last week's issue of The Times the office of Messrs Roberts & Hunt has been besieged by enquirers anxious to secure information about the completion of grading of the Kipp-Aldersyde line. Those who enquired as a rule were farmers who were unable to submit a tender but who were prepared to work by the day. In reply to a letter from Messrs Roberts & Hunt the following document was received from the assistant engineer, H.
G. Barber, of the C.P.R., stationed at Calgary, which specifies for itself.
Calgary, July 25th, 1910.
Messrs. Roberts & Hunt, High River, Alberta.

Dear Sirs,—In reply to yours of the 22nd inst., I beg to state that I have only received notice this morning that the twenty-five miles to complete the grading of the Kipp-Aldersyde line was to be done this year. Any tenders for this grading from contractors who you may know, should be addressed to Mr. W. A. James, Division engineer, Winnipeg. Should I hear in the course of a few days that the work has been let, I will let you have the name of the head contractor, who would likely sub-let portions of the work to smaller outfits. Yours truly,

H. G. BARBER,
Assistant Engineer.

Ontario's Grain and Fruit Harvest Recent reports regarding the crops of Ontario are more optimistic than even those of a month ago, and it is evident the year will prove one of the best for the farming community in the history of the province. The fall wheat crop is reported one of the best that ever faced the binder, and all other cereals are up to the aver-

Fruit prospects throughout the Niagara peninsula are also reported excellent. Very cheerful re-over, and the crop has been both large and of excellent quality.

provinces the indications point to bumper crops for both fruits and grain.

Worst Than Dry Weather

The black grasshopper, the greatest pest that has ever attacked the crops in Manitoba and the northern states, has arrived in swarms at Dakota, where they have already done great damage to the grain crops and garden stuff. The black grasshoppers are to be seen in great numbers and are attacking the gardens, particularly cabbage. Where they do not find succulent garden forage, they attack the standing grain and strip the straw bare in an incredibly short time.

The letter contained a number of of the letter had sent to a friend.

For curiosity's sake the master had one of the seeds planted, and despite the fact that it was three quarters of a century old, the seed fructified, and there is now a healthy, vigorous cucumber plant.

Art and Artists

A fashionable painter, noted for his prolific output, was discussing at studio in the picture trade, a recent scandal in the picture trade.

"Look here, old man," said I. "I'm Kery, the artist, who painted all your own pictures?"

"No," the other answered, "I'm Kery, the artist, who painted all your own pictures?"

"And with my own hands, too," said I.

"And what do you pay your hands?"

"Kery inquired. "I'm thinking of starting an art factory myself."

Mr. Penn: "They say the streets in Boston are very crooked."

Mr. Hub: "They are. Why, do you know, when I first went there I could hardly find my way around."

"That must be embarrassing."

"Yes," the first went on. "I was there I wanted to get rid of an old cat we had, and my wife got me to take the river a mile away."

"You got lost?"

"No, but I got lost."

"And nothing?"

"I never would have found my way home if I hadn't followed her cat."

WHAT NEGLECT DID FOR HIM

JAS. E. BRANT SUFFERED FROM KIDNEY DISEASE

Then He Used Dodd's Kidney Pills and Became a Well-Man—His Experience a Lesson to You

Abbasland Landing, Alta.—"That Kidney Disease, neglected in its earlier stages, leads to a most painful suffering, if not death itself, and that the one sure cure for it in all stages is Dodd's Kidney Pills, a fact, I am sure, Mr. James E. Brant, a farmer residing near here."

Mr. Brant contracted Kidney Disease, when, as a young man, he was straining, and, like hosts of others, neglected it, expecting it to go away by itself.

But it kept gradually growing worse, until after thirty years, and he found himself so crippled and debilitated that he could not turn in bed, and for two weeks at a time it was impossible for him to rise from a chair without putting his hands on his knees.

He could not button his clothes. He was troubled with lameness, gravel and backache, and he turned white for each and all of them without getting relief, till he got Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Dodd's Kidney Pills, which he took at the cause of his troubles, had cured his Kidneys. With careful Kidney pills, other troubles speedily disappeared, and today he is a well man.

If you cure, write to "Dodd's Kidney Pills," and you will never have lameness, rheumatism, Kidney Disease, Dropsy or Bright's Disease.

Writing Up His Affairs

"I had a feud with Jim Wamath, didn't I?"

OLD NEWS-GETTING.

How Canada Got Word of Napoleon's Death.

"Laird's Dispatch and none to King."

"That certainly was a headline called to startle, perhaps, the readers for whom it was printed in Quebec on Tuesday, May 8, 1821—ninety-six years ago."

"The volume containing the files of this old Quebec newspaper for the time being, which several weeks earlier had triggered Europe, and the events which it announced the beginning of the great epoch-making chapter in the history of the world."

"The headlines got appeared over three columns of closely and badly printed text in the issue of the 'Quebec Mercury' of June 8, Napoleon, or Bonaparte, as he is called in this announcement, left King on February 26, landed at the Bay of Amherst on March 1. On the 11th he reviewed the troops at Lyons, and began his march towards Paris. More than three months elapsed before the news of these tremendous events was published in Canada."

The fires that are raging about 20 miles west of Cayley have gotten bad control. Unless rain comes soon the fighters' only hope can be to keep it off the prairie. There are about 400 men fighting it. A large amount of timber has been destroyed.

The ladies of the Baromet Methodist church gave a supper and social on the church grounds last Thursday, which was attended by a large crowd. Miss Inas Shaw sang several selections and accompanied herself with the violin. Her music was very much enjoyed by all those that heard her.

It is very hard to give an estimate of the crops in this district, as some are a complete loss, other fair, and then some are exceptional; but at its best it will be not too good. But cheer up! a country is like a man—you should judge it by its good qualities. Keep smiling.

Speaking of the difficulty in securing men to fight fires, Mr. Charles Leir, a rancher from the west remarked last week "that it was certainly up to the government to appoint more fire guardians, for several people when asked to assist voluntarily to fight fire, refused point blank until they were compelled to do so by the mounted police."—Albertan.

It is mighty mean to patronize a merchant who will trust you until you get so far in debt to him that you are ashamed to see him, and then go ahead and spend your cash somewhere else where you could not get credit; but there are people who do it. The honorable way would be to spend your cash with the merchant who trusted you, even if you never expected to square the account.—Exchange.

J. W. Walter of Nanton says he has raised the price of his land $5 an acre. He says land that will raise a crop without rain ought to be worth more than the other kind.

Agent R. N. Wilson of the Blood Reserve, reports that the fall wheat crop now being cut by the Indians will run about thirty bushels to the acre. The average for the whole province two years ago was 27 bushels.

W. J. Bryan has been deposed as Democratic leader in Nebraska state. He asserts that he has been betrayed and the party bought by the liquor interests.

He describes the action as a political assassination, and does not propose to remain silent.

Vice President Whyte of the C. P. R. says it has been decided to complete grading of line to Alderside this year, solely to provide work for settlers in the southern part of the province who have suffered the loss of crops.

The C. P. R. engineers report that they have begun work in running through the Pass on account of smoke and heat from the burning forests. There has been a certain amount of danger, too, from burning trees falling on the rails, and a bright look-out has been necessitated.

Three hundred and seventy-five farmers in the provinces of Alberta, Manitoba and Saskatchewan have made application for membership in the Dry Farming congress in the last two months, and it is expected there will be several hundred from the province of British Columbia and other provinces in northwestern Canada before the fifth convention opens in Spokane on October, following the formal opening of the international dry farming exposition.

The London, Eng., Daily Mail, which is exploiting Field Marshal Lord Kitchener's non-employment by the government, publishes under the date of Pekin, July 8, a story that China is inviting him to organize and develop the Chinese army on his own terms. Determination to build up the army is now uppermost in the mind of China's ruler, and any emolument that Lord Kitchener may name would be thought cheap for his services.

An interesting demonstration, in which a dead dog was made to bark by the application of a feeble electric current to certain muscles of the throat after the lungs had been artificially inflated, took place recently before the French Academy of Science. Howls were produced by multiplying the experiment, and from this it is argued that the so-called loss of voice by singers may be counteracted by electricity applied to restore muscular activity to the larynx.

Be Careful of Fires

Every year comes the same complaint, that people are careless about fire when out on the prairie or in the woods. Almost all the prairie and bush fires that are proving so destructive are due to carelessness. Travelers, campers, fishermen and picnic-parties do not seem to realize the absolute necessity of putting out, beyond the possibility of rekindling, any fires they may make.

This year the danger is especially great, as both the prairie and the forest are very dry indeed. When a fire starts, however small it may be, it is almost impossible to stop it, and a large area is burned over before the fire burns out. This is serious. The fires frequently mean loss of life, and always means loss of property. There is a law by which those who start these fires are severely punished.

But punishment of the culprit cannot replace burned buildings and haystacks, make the grass grow, or recall life to the bodies of victims. Humanity demands that anyone who has occasion to light a match or a fire do so with the utmost care and make sure that the fire is completely extinguished.

There is no condemnation too harsh to give those who are careless in this matter.—Lethbridge Herald.

Cowan Mill, a man who had his leg taken off at the C. P. R. depot at Granum some few weeks ago and who was moved to the Macleod hospital at the time, went through here on his way home to Calgary the other day.
